

2017 BCAM COLLEGE COACHES OF THE YEAR

Andy Bronkema – Ferris State University Men’s College Coach of the Year

Coach Andy Bronkema just completed his fourth season at Ferris State University. Coach Bronkema led the Bulldogs to both a GLIAC regular season and tournament championship this past year. His team finished the year with a 28-5 record and an outstanding 18-3 GLIAC Conference record. In addition, Coach Bronkema garnered NABC All-Midwest District Coach of the Year honors and led his team to a third consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance.

Abe Mashhour – Schoolcraft Men’s Junior College Coach of the Year

Coach Mashhour just finished his third season at Schoolcraft College after several years at Henry Ford Community College. Abe led the Ocelots to a 23-6 overall record as well as an 18-3 conference record, and an Eastern Division Michigan Community College Athletic Association Championship. His team went on a 10 game winning streak late in the season leading to their third straight MCCA Men's Basketball Championship. He was selected the Eastern Conference Coach of the Year as well as the MCCA Coach of the Year.

Men’s College Coaches of the Year must be BCAM members and are selected by the BCAM College COY Committee. Coaches may only win this award once every three years.
