Coach's Comments:

Dear BCAM Members,

Brandon Johns has left a mark on East Lansing High School that will be remembered for years to come. His sophomore and junior season the team was a combined 48-2. Combine that with the 16-3 senior year and his team currently stands at 64-5 over the last three years. The high flying alley oops and dunks unforgettable! The 3's from way down town! Shooting 73% from the floor as a senior while averaging 28 points per game and 11 rebounds was fun to watch! He brought a tremendous amount of passion, joy, and energy to his time at East Lansing High School. Fans watch the games and just wait for something awesome to happen.

The stats are impressive. The person Brandon Johns is just as impressive as the athlete. He has been a pleasure to coach. He is a great teammate. He works hard in practice. He works hard in the off-season. He listens. He learns. He is trying to get the most out of his talent and the opportunities that are in front of him.

Brandon Johns is a special kid and a rare basketball talent rolled into one. He is going onto play at Michigan next year. The rest of the country will soon realize why he was a candidate for this award. Please consider voting for him this year. It is a vote well spent. It is a vote he has earned.

This time of year, coaches are all very busy. Thank you for taking the time to read the profiles of all the candidates and watch their videos.

Thank you for your consideration,

Kevin Mayes – Interim Head Coach East Lansing Boy's Basketball
