

2019 BCAM MEN'S COLLEGE COACHES OF THE YEAR

Ryan Cottingham – Spring Arbor College

Men's College Coach of the Year

Coach Cottingham led Spring Arbor to their first ever Crossroads League regular season championship and first ever NAIA DII National Championship. The Cougars finished the season with a school record 30 wins and only 7 losses. He was selected as the 2019 Crossroads League Coach of the Year as well as the NAIA National Coach of the Year. Ryan just finished his 20th season at Spring Arbor and is the winningest coach in school history with 362 career wins.

Dale Vos – St. Clair Community College

Men's Junior College Coach of the Year

Coach Vos led St. Clair Community College to a 27-8 record in the Michigan Community College Athletic Association. The Skippers finished strong, winning the NJCAA District 10 Men's Basketball Tournament Championship with an 88-71 win over Henry Ford Community College. For the first time ever St. Clair then advanced to the NJCAA DII Men's National Basketball Championship in Danville, IL. In 28 seasons, Coach Vos has an overall record of 380-355. This year's mark of 27 wins was the best since the Skippers won 30 games during the 1968-69 season.
