

2019 BCAM WOMEN'S COLLEGE COACHES OF THE YEAR

Jordan Sweeney
University of Michigan - Dearborn
Women's College Coach of the Year

The University of Michigan-Dearborn women's basketball team, under the direction of head coach Jordan Sweeney, completed the most successful regular season in program history. The Wolverines record was 24-7 overall and 15-5 in the Wolverine Hoosier Athletic Conference. This placed UM-Dearborn in a tie for third place in the WHAC, the highest finish ever in league play. The 24 win total surpassed the program record of 16 wins set by the 1978-79 and 2008-09 teams. Coach Sweeney's defensive focus guided the Michigan-Dearborn team to end the season as leaders in the WHAC in turnover margin (+7.55), blocks per game (4.36) and steals per game (11.07). In addition, the Wolverines were second in the WHAC in scoring, averaging 72.2 ppg. The Cedarville, Michigan native just concluded his third season as a collegiate head coach.

Patrick Daniel
Lake Michigan College
Women's Junior College Coach of the Year

Head Coach Patrick Daniel and the Lady Red Hawks of Lake Michigan College garnered awards at the league, state, district and national level during the 2018-19 campaign. The Lady Red Hawks' record was 28-7 overall 16-2 in the MCCA Western Conference, earning them their first outright MCCA Western Conference title since the 1996-97 season. Coach Patrick Daniel was named the Western Conference Co-Coach of the Year. The LMC women's basketball team also won the 2018-19 MCCA State Championship. This was Lake Michigan's first MCCA State Championship since the 2000-01 season. The 2019 NJCAA Region XII District G Champions advanced to the NJCAA Division II National Tournament.