Coach's Comments:

The reasons Chandler should be voted Mr. Basketball are three-fold. Athletically, and as a young man Chandler has been a leader for the Detroit Renaissance boys' basketball team in all three areas. Leading the team in points, rebounds and assists, while leading them to the PSL-West division title with a 10-0 record, and to the PSL Championship game where we fell short to Cass Tech.

Chandler was named a unanimous All-City 1st Team, as well as Mr. PSL as the top player in the Detroit Public School League. Chandler has a 3.8 GPA, and is widely respected within the Detroit Renaissance High School by his peers and administration. Through all of the controversy, Chandler has been solid, consistent, and focused on the task at hand.

*Chandler can score in bunches, and can take over a game at will. Chandler recorded a 16 point, 22 rebound game this season, and had a 27 point second half against Flint Beecher, missing a last second 3 point shot to take the game to overtime. Chandler will be the first player in Detroit Renaissance boys' basketball history to bring this coveted award to the school. VERY DESERVING.
