

HALL of HONOR INDUCTEES

ASSISTANT COACH * THOMAS COSS Belding & Mason High Schools

Many coaches are honored for wins and championships. Thomas Coss of Belding and Mason High Schools is admired for 37 years of service and dedication to the boys basketball program.

Thomas started coaching in 1967 as a freshman boys' coach in Belding before leading the Junior Varsity team. In 1973, he moved to Mason High School where he served as Varsity, Jr Varsity and 8th grade coach for the past 30 years. During his tenure as a basketball coach he amassed 311 wins.

In addition to basketball, Thomas has also devoted considerable time coaching football, track and golf.

Thomas has been recognized as Mason's "Teacher of the Year" in 1991 and "Who's Who Among America's Teachers" in 1996.

Thomas and wife Sherry have two daughters, Ashleigh and Melissa. His parents are Charles and Marian.

ASSISTANT COACH * ALVIN JENUWINE Centerline St. Clement High School

It is rare nowadays to find an assistant coach who has spent his career at one school. Alvin Jenuwine is that rare individual who has devoted his time and energy to Centerline St. Clement High School. Alvin's patience with young people has resulted in an incredible career that spans 29 years

Beginning in 1973, Alvin has coached the 6th grade boys, 8th grade boys and girls, JV girls as well as being a Varsity Assistant coach. His impressive career record is 431-209. In his 3 years as an assistant with the varsity squad, St. Clement has won 2 Catholic League titles and 3 District Championships.

Alvin received the 25 year Award for Coaching at St. Clement in 2001 and has been employed by General Motors for 35 years where he earned the award for GM Service in 2004.

Alvin's family includes his wife, Nancy and parents, Walter and Lillian.

HALL of HONOR INDUCTEES

ASSISTANT COACH * MIKE McINERNEY
Eisenhower and Henry Ford II High Schools

Great people make great role models and Mike McInerney fits this bill. Mike's devotion to young people at Eisenhower High School and Henry Ford II High School has left a legacy for all coaches to follow. His teams have displayed consistency and sportsmanship while at the same time being fiercely competitive.

From 1977-1986, Mike had a stellar record of 145-55 while leading the Varsity boys at Eisenhower, with the highlight of playing in the 1980 State semi-finals.

At Ford II High School, Mike has spent 25 years as an assistant coach to Jim Barker and 20 years coaching the 9th grade and Junior Varsity girls' teams to a 385-106 record.

Mike was named Macomb County "Coach of the Year" in 1980.

Mike's family includes his wife, Catherine; daughter, Heather; son, Sean and parents, Richard and Thelma.

OFFICIAL * JOSEPH KAVULICH * Detroit

Affecting young people in a positive manner is a role that officials don't get enough credit for. Joseph Kavulich is an official who has earned this distinction by being a great teacher and communicator to students and officials alike.

In 1967, Joseph began his career as a registered official and is still active today.

His service to high school basketball has included working with 12 Detroit Public School League Finals and 13 Detroit Catholic League Finals. His Championship game experience includes the Class A Boys' Finals in 1975 and 2004, and the Class B Boys' Final in 1976. Joseph has spent 4 years, beginning in 1985, in the capacity of Supervisor of Officials for the Detroit Public Schools.

In addition to his high school service, Joseph has much experience as a college official, working with the GLIAC, MIAA and WHAC conferences. He worked in the Division I Junior College Finals in 1998 and 1999, and the Division II Junior College Finals in 1992 and 1993.

Joseph was elected to the Detroit Catholic League Hall of Fame in 1997.

Joseph and his wife, Jan have 3 sons: John, Mike and Brett..

HALL of HONOR INDUCTEES

OFFICIAL * MALCOLM PENNINGTON III
Detroit

Malcolm Pennington III officiates basketball the same way he played the game. He is committed to excellence. For the past 20 years, Malcolm has officiated basketball around the state at the prep and collegiate levels.

Malcolm played basketball for Shaw College in Detroit.

Malcolm has been honored for his outstanding work by being named as an official in the Girls' Championship in 1997 and the Boys' contest in 2000. He has also been a State Finals official in football in 1994 and 2000.

Malcolm is an assignor of the Detroit Public School League officials.

Wife, Celesta and Malcolm have seven children.

OFFICIAL * MICHAEL SMITH
Detroit

It takes hard work to be a successful official. One way success can be measured is by officiating in a State Championship game. Michael Smith is a success. Michael began as a registered official in 1982 and has worked in 5 leagues: Detroit Public Schools, Catholic, Oakland Athletic Association, Western Lakes Athletic Association and the Saginaw Valley Athletic Association. He officiated in 5 Championship games and in 4 different sports to date.

Another measure of success is the leadership Michael has exhibited in making sure officials are knowledgeable about the mechanics and rules of the game. He established Michael Smith's Basketball Officiating Camp to train beginners all the way up to college officials.

Always an educator, he has taught classes at Wayne and Oakland Universities as well as serving as an evaluator and clinician for various camps and leagues.

Michael has earned the Catholic League Hall of Fame Award, MHSAA Special Recognition Award in 2000, and the MHSAA 20-Year Recognition and Appreciation Award in 2003.

Michael is married to wife, Cary.

HALL of HONOR INDUCTEES

FRIEND OF BASKETBALL * RON PESCH Michigan Basketball Historian

Since 1983, Ron Pesch has covered high school basketball in the state of Michigan.

Ron was tutored by the legendary Dick Kishpaugh. Ron is the state's high school sports historian and for the past 11 years, has faithfully covered both the boys and girls games.

Ron will research, record and write about the history of the game. He maintains the state's record book.

BCAM's Tom Hursey states, "Ron is supportive of our great game in Michigan and maintains records of the game with great accuracy and integrity."

Ron has two sons: Jamie and Evan.

MEDIA * JIM EVANS Royal Oak Daily Tribune

Sit back and recall a big high school basketball game -- boys or girls -- in south Oakland County during the past 25 years. Chances are Daily Tribune sports writer/columnist, Jim Evans, was in the stands, watching, observing, talking to coaches and players -- and then doing what he does best -- putting what took place into words like few others can. Coaches, players, parents, colleagues, basketball officials and school administrators alike in south Oakland County have come to know and respect Jim Evans for what he writes and believes. His positive approach to what he does is seen on the sports pages of the Daily Tribune every day.

Evans, a graduate of Walled Lake Western High School and Albion College, joined the Daily Tribune sports staff in the late 1970's.

Jim's family includes his wife, Kim and children, Kyle, Brittany, Breanna and Jordan; his mother, Joan; his father, Tom and brothers, Tom and Bill.

MEDIA * TOM RENNER * Hope College

Tom Renner has been the spokesperson for men's and women's basketball at Hope College since 1967. Tom also serves as the publicist for the MIAA. His publications work for both school and conference and have been honored in the COSIDA Publication Contest.

In 1996, he served as a volunteer in press operations at the men's basketball and gymnastics venues during the Olympic Games in Atlanta, Georgia.

"There are few media people you run into over the years that communicate so well. Tom Renner is very professional in his commitment to the sport of basketball" said Glenn VanWieren, mens' basketball coach at Hope College. "The beneficiaries of his hard work are the student-athletes at every level, and the fans who get to read what he writes."

Tom and wife, Carole, have 4 children and 4 grandchildren.