

Norwaine Reed, Al Schaffer, Mark Macon

MARK MACON — MR. BASKETBALL

Al Schaffer (Grand Haven)

Mark Macon, the 6'5" All State guard from Saginaw Buena Vista, is the winner of the Hal Schram Mr. Basketball award for 1987. Mark will be awarded the trophy at the annual BCAM banquet, Saturday, June 20, at CMU. He will be wearing the traditional #1 that evening in the Class A All Star game and again in the 2 game series with the Ohio All Stars June 25 & 26. Mark demonstrated to the entire country his outstanding ability by being named M.V.P. of the prestigious McDonalds All Star Classic in Philadelphia. His coach, Norwaine Reed, said at the Press Conference at the Detroit Free Press on Mon. March 20th that Mark was a leader on the court, in the classroom, and in the community. Mark will play for Temple University next year. The BCAM congratulates Mark on his outstanding high school career and we wish him well at Temple. We are sure he will carry on the excellent sportsmanship, leadership, and success displayed by the previous winners of this, the most prestigious award given to a high school athlete, MR. BASKETBALL.